Checklist: is your sales team ready for an AI assistant?

10 questions to answer before launch. Your answers will help at the workshop “AI for your sales team” on 17 November and at the free audit.

1 How many enquiries a day come through WhatsApp, Telegram and your website?
Count them over a normal week. Every estimate starts here.
Your answer

2 What share arrives in the evening and at weekends?
These are the enquiries the assistant takes on first.
Your answer

3 How many minutes until a client gets the first reply?
Time a few enquiries during the day and in the evening.
Your answer

4 Which 5 questions does your manager ask every client?
The assistant will ask them before handing the enquiry over.
Your answer

5 Do you have a price list and answers to common questions in writing?
The assistant only answers from what is written down.
Your answer

6 Where are enquiries kept: in a CRM, a spreadsheet or only in chats?
This decides where the assistant will create the client record.
Your answer

7 What does only your manager decide?
Discounts, deadlines, unusual orders. The assistant always passes these to a person.
Your answer

8 Who reviews the assistant’s replies in the first weeks?
One owner who reads the chats and fills gaps in the knowledge base.
Your answer

9 Is the official WhatsApp Business API connected?
The assistant needs official access to WhatsApp, not a manager’s personal number.
Your answer

10 Which number will tell you the assistant has paid off?
For example: enquiries answered within 5 minutes, or sales that came from night enquiries.
